

CONTENTS

Abbreviations	xiv
Introduction by Professor Antony Polonsky	xvii
Foreword by Professor M. R. D. Foot	xxiii
Preface	xxvii

Part One

Chapter 1

1. Voluntarily to Auschwitz	1
2. Undercover Mission	2
3. The German Plans for Auschwitz	4
4. Construction and Early Days of Auschwitz	8
5. Witold Pilecki Arrives in Auschwitz	14
6. Organization and Administration of the Auschwitz Camp	16
7. Use of Prisoners in the Camp Administration	25
8. Himmler's Visit to Auschwitz	31
Notes to Chapter 1	37

Chapter 2

1. The Development of Underground Work in the Camp	39
2. The First 'Five'	42
3. The Polish Underground	47
Notes to Chapter 2	59

CONTENTS

Chapter 3

1. The Underground Organization in the Neighbourhood of the Camp	61
2. Secret Work in the Hospital	66
3. The First Reports to London	76
4. The Organization of Labour and Underground Workers in Key Positions	78
5. The Orchestra; Collective Responsibility for Escapes ...	92
6. The German–Soviet War	99
Notes to Chapter 3	100

Part Two

Chapter 4

1. The First Deaths from Gassing	107
2. The Fourth ‘Five’	109
3. Agreement Between the Military and Political Groups	115
4. The Building of Birkenau	119
5. Slave Labour in Auschwitz and Sub-Camps	128
6. The Extermination of the Jews	135
Notes to Chapter 4	153

Chapter 5

1. The Underground Network in Birkenau	155
2. Pilecki’s Contact with the Czechs	160
3. The Radio Transmitter	163
4. The Underground’s First Escapes	165
5. Revolt in the Penal Companies	168
6. Further Unification of the Military Groups	174
Notes to Chapter 5	181

CONTENTS

Chapter 6
1. The Women's Camp	183
2. The Hospital	210
3. Liquidation of Informers	218
4. Reassignment of Military Leadership	223
5. Himmler's Second Visit	228
Notes to Chapter 6	231
Chapter 7
1. Losses Among the Underground	235
2. Help from Outside the Camp.....	240
3. The Partisan Units	248
4. Pilecki's Escape	253
5. Pilecki Reports to His Home Army Superiors.....	268
Notes to Chapter 7.....	272
 Part Three
Chapter 8
1. Summary of the Previous Period	275
2. Underground Leadership After Pilecki's Escape	279
3. Overview of Nationalities and Ethnic Groups at Auschwitz	281
4. The Austrian Group	284
5. The French Group	290
6. The Soviet Group	292
7. Other Groups	298
8. Formation of the Kampfgruppe Auschwitz	300
Notes to Chapter 8	311

CONTENTS

Chapter 9
1. The Surveyors' Kommando	315
2. SS Morale	318
3. Conditions in the Hospital	325
4. Liquidation of the Leaders of the Polish Military Underground	331
5. The New Commandant and Changes in the Camp	339
6. Influence of Hermann Langbein	343
Notes to Chapter 9	349
Chapter 10
1. Further Action by the Underground	353
2. Changes at the Hospital; Obliterating Traces of Crimes	358
3. The Book of the Bunker	360
4. Liquidation of Hungarian Jews	365
5. Changes in the Underground	369
Notes to Chapter 10	373
Chapter 11
1. Escapes and Partisans	375
2. The Moll Plan	381
3. The Revolt in the Sonderkommando	384
4. Preparations for the Relief of the Camp	391
5. The Underground's Final Actions	402
6. Evacuation	406
Notes to Chapter 11	408
Conclusion	411
Afterword by Jarek Garliński	417

LIST OF MAPS

Appendices

1. Subsequent Fate of the More Important Persons Mentioned in the Text	422
2. Additional Notes on Various Matters	426
3. Underground Members at Auschwitz and Those Who Helped Them	431
4. SS Ranks with Comparable Ranks in the British Army	442
5. Comments and Corrections	443
Select Bibliography.....	451
People Index	475
Subject Index	496
Discussion Questions	549
Author Bio	553

LIST OF MAPS

Europe – 1939	vi
Poland – 1939	viii
Invasion of Poland – September 1939	xvi
Occupied Poland 1939–1941	xxii
Auschwitz and Environs	xxxvi
Detail – Auschwitz and Environs	xxxvii
KL Auschwitz I	xxxviii
Europe – Summer 1940	43
Birkenau	124
Pilecki's Escape Route	265